■ Overview

Nanjing University hosted the 4th AEARU Student Athletic Competition during July 4th - 9th 2015 with the support from the Association of East Asian Research Universities (AEARU).

Four men's teams and two women's teams from Taiwan University, Peking University, University of Science and Technology of China and Nanjing University participated in the event.

Professor Ren Lijian, Vice President of Nanjing University, made the welcoming remarks. He noted that the Nanjing University has a long history in Physical Education and Sports Competition, with first-class equipment and teachers, therefore the university has the ability and confidence to run this race. He encouraged everyone going out and experiencing the glamour of Nanjing during the volleyball match, and hoped everyone enjoy themselves during their stay in Nanjing.

During the tournament, participants from the four universities performed well. Eventually, after three days of intense competition, women's team from Nanjing University won the championship, while men's team from Taiwan University won the 1st award.

The event was an outstanding opportunity to deepen the bonds and enhance collaboration among students, faculty, and staff of AEARU member universities. After the game, as the organizer, Nanjing University also organized school teams sightseeing to make teachers and students fully experience the charm of Nanjing.
